

Saturday 2nd June Jubilation: Day 1

Free Entry to All Daytime Events

Official Opening by Andrew Griffiths MP

(Almshouses Front Lawn at 12.00pm)

Everyone is invited to join Andrew Griffiths, MP for Burton & Uttoxeter, at the Official Opening Ceremony.

Well - Dressing

(Almshouses Front Lawn :on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

During the period of the Black Death, the pagan custom of well-dressing was revived in Derbyshire to give thanks for the purity of water. Wooden frames are covered with nails to hold the clay in place into which petals or other natural materials are stuck to create the picture. We would like to thank everyone who has been involved in the creation of our well-dressing.

Alderbrook Boat Pageant

(Alderbrook along Burnside: on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

A splendid imitation of the River Thames pageant. No need to bring your binoculars to see this naval review. Thanks to all boat builders and riggers for splashing out and launching into things so spectacularly.

Floating Flowers

(Alderbrook along Burnside: on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Stunning flower arrangements artfully displayed on giant lily pads.

Diamond Jubilee Fête

(On the Croft and in Rolleston Club from 12.00pm~5.00pm)

Featuring Uttoxeter Heart of Oak Morris from 2:00pm ~ 2:30pm ❖ 3:30pm ~ 4:00pm
& Rolleston Mummers from 1:30pm ~ 1:50pm ❖ 3:00pm ~ 3:20pm ❖ 4:10pm ~ 4:00pm

Plenty of fun and games to play. Take a good look at the stalls and exhibits on show.

Diamond Jubilee Tea Room

(The Old Grammar School Room: 12:30pm ~ 5:00pm)

Flags 'n' Flowers

(Decorated Streets & Gardens on show throughout the village.)

Jubilation Exhibitions

(Rolleston Methodist Chapel: 10:00am ~ 4:00pm from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Art & Craft Exhibition

An all-embracing celebration of the visual arts, for people of all ages.

Jubilee Years Bygones Exhibition

An exhibition of Rolleston Bygones & Memorabilia from the sixty years of Her Majesty's reign.

"This Is The Day"

Rolleston Choral Society's Jubilation Concert

(St Mary's Church: 7:30pm on Saturday 2nd June)

A thrilling celebration of British music including a choral version of Elgar's "Nimrod" and John Rutter's "This Is The Day", which he composed for the Royal Wedding last year. Tickets: £8.00.

To be experienced beneath St Mary's Church

Jubilation Banners

Tuesday 5th June Jubilation: Day 4

A last chance to tour the village and enjoy a free view of splendid installations and exhibitions. You could finish off by coming to the Diamond Jubilee Barbecue at Rolleston Cricket Club.

Jubilation Exhibitions

(Rolleston Methodist Chapel: 10:00am ~ 4:00pm from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Art & Craft Exhibition

An all-embracing celebration of the visual arts, for people of all ages.

Jubilee Years Bygones Exhibition

An exhibition of Rolleston Bygones & Memorabilia from the sixty years of Her Majesty's reign.

Jubilation Banners

(St Mary's Church: Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Commemorative banners hung in the roof of the nave celebrating our own village anniversaries, whether they be "special years" or not. They remind us of the durability and cohesive spirit of our local community. Thanks to all for hanging about.

Flags 'n' Flowers

(Decorated Streets & Gardens on show throughout the village.)

Floating Flowers

(Alderbrook along Burnside: on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Stunning flower arrangements artfully displayed on giant lily pads.

Alderbrook Boat Pageant

(Alderbrook along Burnside: on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

A splendid imitation of the River Thames pageant. No need to bring your binoculars to see this naval review. Thanks to all boat builders and riggers for splashing out and launching into things so spectacularly.

Well - Dressing

(Alms Houses Front Lawn :on view All Day from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Diamond Jubilee Barbecue

(The Willows, Rolleston Cricket Club ~ Gates Open at 4:00pm)
(Entry Free ~ Food & Drink on Sale)

It's over to Rolleston Cricket Club for a right royal barbecue with plenty of family fun and games. In a final celebration we shall reflect upon Jubilation 2012 and drink a loyal toast to Her Majesty, the Queen. Happy and glorious, long may she reign!

Rolleston on Dove Special Events Committee

RODSEC is an umbrella organization that draws upon the strengths, talents and enthusiasm of organizations and individuals in our village. This friendly forum draws together interested parties and facilitates the delivery of Special Events, that are for the most part free to the public. We aim to foster and enhance community spirit. In order to finance these periodic events, each year we organize a programme of fund-raising entertainments.

You are welcome to join us.

