

Monday 4th June
Jubilation: Day 3
4th Charity Transport Festival

(The Croft, Burnside & Station Road 10.00am ~ 5.00pm)
Entry

£3.00 Souvenir Brochure includes entry for one person.
£2.00 without brochure
Brochures available in advance from Starbucks.

Come and see this fabulous steaming, shining, chrome-plated spectacular road show.
Join in this classic event dressed in the fashions of the last 60 years.
A Fantastic Family Day Out with Children's Entertainer, Punch & Judy, Rides, Stalls and All the Fun of the Fair

Free Bus Ride Tours

Rides start from St Mary's Church. Bargain hunters can get off and visit Garage Sales along the way.

Rolleston Club

Transport Exhibition including spectacular photographs.

Festival food on sale all day, starting with early morning bacon baps and hot drinks.

Diamond Jubilee Grand Garage Sale Tour

(Throughout the village, from 10:00am ~ 5:00pm: look out for the sky-blue balloons and bunting)

It does exactly what it says on the tin!

For the third year running many Rollestonians are de-cluttering their homes and offering the opportunity for others to pick up a bargain by following the map and visiting the garages listed. The tour can be made on foot, by bus or other means of transport and bargains are to be found in the many locations en route. The tour is organised by St Mary's and funds raised go towards the Walls Project which involves re-pointing and replacing ancient stone to ensure the survival of the church for future generations.

Grand Garage Sale Tea Room

(Old Grammar School: 10:00am ~ 5:00pm)

Revive yourself with a refreshing hot drink and enjoy a slice or two of deliciously fresh home-baked cake.

All Events listed below are Free.

Jubilation Exhibitions

(Rolleston Methodist Chapel: 10:00am ~ 4:00pm from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Art & Craft Exhibition

Jubilee Years Bygones Exhibition

Floating Flowers

Alderbrook Boat Pageant

Well - Dressing

Flags 'n' Flowers

Sunday 3rd June
Jubilation: Day 2

All events Free apart from Big Screen Showing

People's Procession

(11:00 am: Gather on the Croft. 11:15am: Set off.

This revised route follows the footpath between the Spread Eagle and St Mary's, goes briefly along the pavement, turns into the churchyard via the lych gate or ramp then passes the Old Grammar School before rejoining the Croft.

You are invited to join in this relaxed and family-friendly informal procession.
All paraders are welcome to join the congregation as it assembles on the Croft.

United Churches Service on the Croft

(The Croft: 11:30 am ~ 12:15pm. If wet in St Mary's Church)

Ministers from Rolleston Methodist Chapel and St. Mary's Church combine to celebrate this extraordinary occasion in a Special Diamond Jubilee Service.

Big Picnic Concert on the Croft

(The Croft: 12:30pm ~ 3:30pm. If wet in St Mary's Church)

Bring your hampers and join in the picnic party on the Croft as a programme of live entertainment is performed by local musicians, dancers and entertainers. You could, of course, both picnic and play on the day.

A perfect venue for kings and queens, princes and princesses.

Big Screen Showing of the River Thames Pageant

(Rolleston Club: 3:00pm ~ 5:30pm. Tickets: £3.00 – including cream tea)

For the biggest and best view in the village, join the crew and watch this spectacular pageant while enjoying cream teas, dainty sandwiches and cakes fit for a queen.

Jubilation Banners

(St Mary's Church: Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Commemorative banners hung in the roof of the nave celebrating our own village anniversaries, whether they be "special years" or not. They remind us of the durability and cohesive spirit of our local community.

Thanks to all for hanging about.

Jubilation Exhibitions

(Rolleston Methodist Chapel: 10:00am ~ 4:00pm from Saturday 2nd June ~ Tuesday 5th June)

Art & Craft Exhibition

Jubilee Years Bygones Exhibition

An all-embracing celebration of the visual arts, for people of all ages.

Bygones & Memorabilia from the sixty years of Her Majesty's reign.

On show are paintings, photographs, 3D work, crafts and delightful children's work.

A remarkable and nostalgic display that re-visits the Second Elizabethan Age.

Floating Flowers

Alderbrook Boat Pageant

Well - Dressing

Flags 'n' Flowers

