

Anti Social Behaviour update - Issue 1 June 2010

ANTI SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR, DID YOU KNOW?

In March, April and May 2010, there were 32.5% fewer incidents of anti social behaviour in the Neighbourhood Policing area of Anslow, Hanbury, Needwood, Upper Outwoods, Rolleston and Tutbury, than in the same three months of 2009. When compared with the rest of Staffordshire the number of incidents in this area is average.

The Police and Local Authority take anti social behaviour seriously and we are working closely with our partners to ensure that the number of incidents continues to decline. There are many ways you can report anti social behaviour:

- To your local neighbourhood police team on 0300 1234455
- To the community safety officer on 01283 508000 or online at www.eaststaffsbc.gov.uk
- To Registered Social Landlords e.g. Trent and Dove
- To your Local Councillor

You can find out more information about anti social behaviour and what's being done to tackle it on the anti social behaviour pages of East Staffordshire Borough council website.
